It is thought that the work on the new It is thought that the work on the new bridge pier, so far done, will be null and void, as it will be an impossibility for the contractors to fuifill their agreement within the specified time. The river is still on the rise, and the pilling has been heaved up by the softening of the coffer dam. The contractors will no doubt loose heavily by this. The pier at any rate will not be built this winter.

The talk about the suspension of active operations in the bonanza mines for three or four months, in order to repair the damage done by the fire, it is barely possible is a stock-jobbing trick of Messrs. Mackey, Fair, Flood and O'Brien, the San Francisco militonaires, O'Brien, the San Francisco militonaires, who own the great majority of the shares. Up to the time of the fire the dividends to stockholders, after all the "squeezes" had been taken out, amounted to $1,080,000 per month. The total losses of the mine by the fire were the destruction of its hoisting and outer works, which, it is now stated, could be replaced in a couple of weeks for less than $500,000. The day after the disaster the bonanza snares shrunk $35,000. ter the bonanza snares shrunk $35,000,000, and shareholders in San Francisco are beginning to ask whether the suspension of dividends taiked about by Mr. Flood indicates that they are to be squeezed as dry as was the Bank of Cal-tornia by the Flood & O'Brien ring.

LQCAL NEWS.

WOOD'S THEATER.-A dramatization of Wilkie Collins' famous story, "The New Magdalen," was given at this house last evening, with the charming actress, Miss May Howard, as the heroine, "Mercy Merrick." The play was beautifully mounted and well cast. Miss Howard's conception and rendition of Howard's conception and rendition of the peroine stamped her as an agress of no ordinary character, and deserving of the many encomiums passed upon her. Mr. Griffiths and Miss Johnson were both good, but one of the choice bits of the evening was the acting of Mr. Fuller as "the servant." His make-up was per-lect and his acting excellent, lifting a part of scarcely two lines into a perform-ance that called forth the applause of the entire audience. "The New Magda-ien" will be the attraction at the matines on Saturday. on Saturday.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—Miss Min-nie Palmer still continues to draw good houses at the Grand by her sprightly acting and her truly excellent singing and dancing. Mr. Cailanan's play altords her ample scope for her powers, and is beautifully adapted to her peculiar style.
